National Coalition of Women in Ministry®

Congratulations NCWM® Esther® Awards Honorees,

It is my great honor to congratulate you on receiving the esteemed Esther Award. Today, we celebrate your dedication, leadership, and tireless service that have uplifted countless lives and strengthened our communities.

Your contributions span across education, faith-based service, advocacy, humanitarian efforts, and community development. Through your leadership in housing, business, youth mentorship, public service, and philanthropy, you have empowered families, nurtured future leaders, and provided invaluable resources to those in need. Your passion for service shines through initiatives in the arts, healthcare, entrepreneurship, and ministry, touching lives locally, nationally, and globally.

Each of you embodies the spirit of Esther—courageous, compassionate, and committed to making a difference. Your impact is immeasurable, and your legacy will continue to inspire generations to come.

We also extend our deepest gratitude to the pastors, friends, and supporters who have joined us this morning. Your presence and encouragement make this celebration even more meaningful. Your unwavering support has played a vital role in uplifting these remarkable honorees and ensuring the success of this event.

Congratulations on this well-deserved recognition. May you continue to shine as beacons of hope and empowerment.

With admiration and gratitude,

Dr. Jada Shipp

Congratulations!
2025
Esther® and Men of Mordecai Awards

March 15, 2025

Greeting to all of Our Queen Esther Honorees

TODAY IS YOUR DAY OF HONOR!

In serving as the National President of this great organization, I count it an honor to celebrate all of the beautiful, loving, devoted, and committed Queens of Esther unto the Lord and His Word. Your kingdom work has not gone undone. Someone has seen your dedication and want to share your accomplishments with the National Coalition of Women in Ministry.

Thank you for obeying and for striving to make a difference in the lives of God's people in our churches, homes and communities.

Your commitment impacts and empowerment is unmoved, attiring, relentless love has elevated you to greater levels in the kingdom of God.

Those souls that know Christ and those lost souls that do not Christ have benefitted and seen the hand of God in your unselfish work in the Kingdom of God.

Therefore, We honor you because the word of God tells us in Romans 13:7 to "Give honor to whom honor is due". You deserve to be recognized as faithful workers in the Kingdom for Christ. So today, we thank you and encourage you to continue to make a difference until Jesus returns for His Glorious Church!

Kingdom Blessings!

Elder Belva Armour
National President
National Coalition of Women in Ministry®

Sherry Scott

NCWM® Member - Life Church

Sherry Scott is a passionate advocate for children and the elderly. As Professional School Counselor and Medicare Consultant, she devotes her time helping the most vulnerable citizens in our communities: our children and elders. With over 20 years of experience, she guides and motivates her students to be the best version of themselves. As a Medicare Consultant, she has conducted countless seminars to help our elders access Medicare benefits and programs to support their healthcare needs. However, Sherry Scott is a parent first-being a parent gives her true insight into the rewards and challenges of raising an exceptional child. She combines that insight and passion to support her community.

Sherry Scott is a proud graduate of LeMoyné-Owen College where she majored in English Literature and Education. She earned her Masters of School Counseling degree from The University of Memphis and went on to earn her ED.S. from Union University.

She attends the Life Church where she works in the children's ministry. She volunteers for several organizations and serve on various committees in Tennessee and Mississippi. Sherry makes time to enjoy several hobbies that balance her busy life. She likes playing tennis and making scented candles with her daughter, Lauren Scott. She and Lauren are also the founders and owners of Bumble Candles & Scents. They market their products at events such as the Cooper-Young Festival and specialize in creating gift boxes for special occasions.

Sherry Scott has a heart for serving her community. She believes that by building strong partnerships, we can make positive and effective progress to improve the lives of our children and elders, strengthen communities, and ultimately change lives.

Forestine Carroll

Forestine Carroll is a native of Memphis, Tennessee and a graduate of Tennessee State University, BS degree in Business Administration. Mrs. Carroll has been married to Mr. James Carroll for 44 years. She is the mother of Fundisha and James Carroll Jr. and heavenly daughter Jessica Carroll. She retired from Memphis Housing Authority on July 1, 2021, after 44 years of employment. Her expertise in low-income housing enhanced many families' lives by making affordable housing available. Her last twenty-two (22) years of employment with the Memphis Housing Authority evolved her passion for risk management. She served on various Public Risk Management Boards: TNPRIMA, Tennessee Housing Authority Risk Management Trust, and National PRIMA. She serves on the Memphis Municipal Employees Federal Credit Union Board. She is a member of Berean Missionary Baptist Church, Pastor and Spiritual Leader, Dr. William Smith III. She serves in the Women, Prison, Golden and Inspired, Choir, Prayer, and various community ministries. Mrs. Carroll is a servant of the Lord.

Prophetess Remona Dickerson

Prophetess Dickerson is a servant and compassionate leader. For 17 years, she has been an active member of New Faith Ministries, serving under the leadership of Bishop Derwin Dickerson and Lady Dickerson. She is the loving mother to Marcus Richardson. She is an alumnus of Southside High School and Brewster School of Theology. In memory of her daughter, Jamille Kizer (1991–2010), Prophetess Dickerson established the Jamille Kizer Book Scholarship to support students in the Criminal Justice Department at the University of Memphis. In 2012, Inner Healing Outreach Ministry was birthed, where she provides spiritual empowerment through her women’s retreats. She also conducts spiritual workshops at Pine Hill Community Center to provide healing to the community. She currently serves as an Intake Specialist at the American Job Center of Memphis. Prophetess Dickerson’s unwavering faith, compassion, and commitment to service reflect her mission to bring hope and healing to her community.

Frankie Faulkner

Frankie Faulkner is a devoted member of Macedonia M.B. Church, where she serves as Choir President, a member of the Mother’s Board, and an active leader in the Marriage and Culinary Ministries. Married to Rev. George R. Faulkner, she finds joy in serving others through faith, fellowship, and food. With over 40 years in retail, Frankie helped countless individuals discover their unique style before retiring as an award-winning Accessories Sales Specialist at Macy’s. Beyond her career, she is a passionate community advocate, generously donating coats, clothing, and meals to those in need. A skilled caterer, she brings love and flavor to every dish she creates. Through it all, her faith remains her foundation. As Romans 8:28 reminds us, “All things work together for good to them that love God.”

Carol Jackson

Carol Jackson loves people and believes that God created things to support the sustainability of people, and her love for people manifests in her daily work. For 35 years, she was involved in the people industry as a human resource manager for major companies. She was known as the individual who first thought of the person and tried to align the company's policy with those whom she assisted. Carol's love of family is her ministry: she is deeply in love with her husband of 55 years, Herman, and their six children (three of whom are triplet boys), 17 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Carol's family matters, making Families Matter, the faith-based non-profit she leads, essential to her being. As the Executive Director of Families Matter, Carol is in her sweet spot when she works to support families by enhancing fathers' knowledge of who they are and their roles in the family structure.

Sally Johnson

Sallie is married and the mother of two children. Sallie's passion was to become a cosmetologist. Former owner of Sally's Hair Gallery for 34 yrs. Sallie graduated from State Technical College in 1996. She also, graduated from LeMoyne-Owen College in 1996, with a Degree in Business Administration. Sallie is president of TN. Beauticians, Barbers and Nail Technicians for 18 yrs. Sallie's organization gives scholarships to students from LeMoyne-Owen College and Cosmetology schools. February 2024 Sallie appeared on Gina Neely's TV Show, Bluff City. Sallie also received the Alumni community award from LeMoyne-Owen College, because of her willingness to help others. In 2018, the Tri-State Defender honored Sallie as one of the 50 women of excellence. Sallie works part-time at Elnora's Nail and Beauty Shop. She is a member of Mississippi Boulevard Church, where she serves as an usher.

Deneen Lester

Dr. Deneen Lester is a Certified Human Resources Professional with 34 years of expertise in the HR field. She retired from the City of Memphis as the Talent Management Officer and now serves as the Human Resources Senior Manager at The Salvation Army Memphis Mid-South. Dr. Lester made history as the first African-American female elected President of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) Memphis Chapter and formerly served as the West Tennessee District Director for the SHRM Tennessee State Council. She holds a Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctorate degree and has received numerous accolades, including the 2022 HR Excellence Award from Tennessee SHRM and the SHRM-Memphis Lifetime Achievement Award. Dr. Lester is the Founder and CEO of the Christian HR Network and HR TV, hosting the show Let's Talk HR with Dr. Deneen. Married to Rev. Dr. Chuck Lester, she has also served in the music ministry for 37 years.

Deidre Malone

Deidre Malone is the president/chief executive officer of The Carter Malone Group, LLC (CMG), a public relations, marketing, advertising and government relations firm headquartered in Memphis, Tennessee and an office in Jackson, MS. Before opening the agency in May 2003, Malone served as Vice President of Marketing Development for ALSAC/St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and also held the position of Director of Public Relations for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Malone is the current president of the National Women's Political Caucus. She is the 15th woman to hold this position. Malone has served as 1st Vice President and Vice President of Communications. She is a former elected official. Malone was elected to the Shelby County Commission in 2002 and made history by becoming the first African American woman to chair the Shelby County Commission. Malone is a member of Bethlehem M.B. Church and serves as a trustee.

Evangelist Dianne Pruitt

Evangelist Dianne Pruitt is a devoted mother of five, with the strength to endure the profound loss of one child. A firm believer in God's grace, she initially ran from her divine calling to preach the gospel, but eleven years ago, she accepted her purpose and was ordained as an Evangelist eight years ago. Dianne's faith was solidified during a life-altering incident when a gun was pointed at her head, and despite six attempts, the gun did not fire. This powerful experience reinforced her belief that Jesus is her protector. Professionally, she has excelled at DHL eCommerce for nine years, advancing from Operations Supervisor to Operations Manager, overcoming obstacles despite not meeting formal educational requirements. Dianne credits her success to God's empowerment. She is grateful for the unwavering support of her mother, Ruthie Arnold, her husband, Minister Kelvin Pruitt, Pastor Lonzo Stevison, and her mentor, Prophetess Remona Dickerson, whose guidance and prayers continue to inspire her.

Cynthia Sargent

Cynthia's commitment to service began in her youth at her home church in Las Vegas, where she sang in the youth choir and served on the junior usher board. This early dedication grew into a distinguished career in public service, including over 20 years in the United States Air Force. During her military tenure, she served at the Pentagon and worked under the administrations of Presidents George W. Bush and Barack Obama. A consummate professional and devoted volunteer, Cynthia actively supports her community and church. At Alfred Street Baptist Church, she is a proud member of the military ministry, and though she holds no official title at Emmanuel Home Baptist Church, she contributes selflessly to their mission in numerous ways. Currently, Cynthia continues her public service as a Business Manager for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Her life reflects a steadfast commitment to faith, service, and uplifting others, leaving a lasting impact on her community and all who know her.

Prophetess Valencia Scott

Prophetess Valencia Scott - INNERBEAUTY/KNOW YOUR WORTH (CEO)
A Passionate helper, Survivor, Servant are a few to describe Valencia Scott. A full-Blown Alcoholic at the age of 24, Valencia experienced a troubled past that began as an adolescent. After years of unhealthy experience, Valencia finally realized the only way she would be whole would be to turn her life over to Jesus Christ. Through her testimony and thought-provoking plays, and skits, Valencia inspires, encourages, and empowers women of all ages to their INNERBEAUTY through the eyes of Christ. You can find her on Prayer lines doing Outreach Ministry and as Co-host of Blog talk radio. Valencia Scott is a member under Carolyn Corbett. Valencia Scott has a heart for the people. She loves to give to the less fortunate. Also, because of her battle with depression, it breaks her heart to see what others go through with depression. She continues to trust in the Lord and lets Him guide her in the way she should go.

Good Samaritan Award

Linda Stallion

A good Samaritan is someone who sees a need and does not get someone else to meet that need but rather takes care of it themselves. This is who Linda Stallion is to the many who have encountered her either in a working relationship or in her involvement in the community. Ms. Stallion has a passion for serving people, especially young people and their families. She volunteered to help families by becoming a volunteer Auxiliary Probation Officer (APO) for the Memphis/Shelby County Juvenile Court. She served in this capacity for 13 years. During this time, she counseled, and assisted youth to succeed in life. Because of her commitment to helping others as she had been helped in her life when she was a teen, she received not one, not two, but several Outstanding APO awards over the 13 years she served in this capacity. Her commitment to excellence and service to the youth she was assisting did not go unnoticed by those in the court system and those she worked with in her section. She stood out and provided meaningful suggestions on how to make things better. She felt that God had placed her there to do the good work that was once extended to her. These efforts, although not intentional on her part, led her overseers to appoint her as the Chief, APO for her section. She ended her volunteer work with them as she approached retirement at FedEx. In addition to her work with juveniles, she was a member of the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc. - Memphis Chapter whose mission is to advocate on behalf of Black women and girls. Again, another opportunity to serve her community. She served in several leadership capacities in the organization including Vice President of Programs and was instrumental in introducing this organization to the Esther Awards Ceremony. Why? Because she wanted to ensure that women, especially Black women, who were doing great work could be recognized.

Her work in the community did not go unnoticed. In 2005 the Memphis Women's Magazine recognized her as one of "50 Women Who Make a Difference." She indeed made a difference in the lives of every child she supported and every woman she felt needed to be recognized.

Congratulations Cynthia!

We confirm and lovingly endorse your nomination of this prestigious award.

The LORD God's goodness radiates from your spirit and is evident through the kindness, generosity, support, and love you give to others as you "Faith Walk" through life while discerning ". . . and if I perish, I perish!" (Esther 4:16 NKJV)

Continue to Grow, Go, and Glow in the LORD God!!!

Congratulations Queen “Titi” Cynt on this Esther Award!!!

Titi Cynt for us, and to others Cynthia, but by either name our aunt is an amazing woman. She is fierce, strong, and independent. There is a reason these words are cliches’ because when someone possesses these qualities it would be a disservice by not highlighting it. A lot of people get credit for doing nothing which in turn doesn’t get to highlight the people who are really out there making an impact -- and our Aunt Cynthia is one of those people who makes a difference in the community and world.

WE LOVE YOU!
